

Website Management Intern
for
Educators for Socially Responsible Apparel Practices (ESRAP)

Educators for Socially Responsible Apparel Practices (ESRAP) seeks an intern to manage their website (<http://www.esrapglobal.org/>). Responsibilities will vary depending on applicant experience, but may include any combination of the following:

- Work with ESRAP committee representative to maintain and update website content
- Develop new content consistent with the organization's purpose
- Design and optimize home page and inside pages
- Manage ESRAP blog
- Coordinate content with the organization's social media presence

The intern will:

- Be passionate about sustainability in the clothing and textile industry
- Be enrolled full-time in a relevant undergraduate program, junior or senior status
- Work collaboratively with ESRAP committee representative to complete assigned tasks
- Work independently to maintain and update content
- Possess a strong level of attention to detail

This is an unpaid internship. Internship parameters (such as credits earned and hours completed) are dependent on the requirements of the applicant's institution, and in consultation with the ESRAP committee representative. Generally, internships will last for a duration of one academic quarter or semester, renewable upon agreement between the institution and ESRAP committee.

To apply for this internship, applicants should demonstrate qualifications for this internship by submitting:

- A letter of interest, describing prior experience that well-positions the candidate for this role
- Examples of relevant work, which must include one each of the following:
  - Sample writing (research paper, creative writing, blog post, etc.)
  - Creative work (created website, graphic design project, apparel line board, etc.) via a file attachment, link, or other digital format

All materials should be emailed to both Dr. Connie Ulasewicz at cbu@sfsu.edu and an ESRAP faculty member from the applicant's institution.
